ABOUT RACHEL

My name is Rachel Dufour and I have been married to my wonderful husband, Eric Dufour, for 28 years. We are the proud parents of five handsome young men, three of whom were recently married. My passion is to help women understand, protect, and celebrate their God-given sexuality and the beauty of their femininity in order to bring them to a place of emotional and spiritual health.

CONFERENCES & EVENTS

My passion to encourage women to cultivate healthy sexual intimacy with their husbands has opened many opportunities to speak at various churches, events, and conferences worldwide. Some of these have included CMA events such as Thrive (Women's Conference in Nebraska), Ze Watchers (Spiritual Retreat in the Netherlands), Rassemblement pour la Paix (Women's Rally for Peace in France), Conférence Brille (Shine Women's Conference in Longueuil, QC, Canada), and Confesiones des Mujeres (Confessions of Women's Conference in Ecuador).

TV & RADIO

I've appeared on TV and radio worldwide, EMCI TV, Corner Cafe Entertainment (Crawford Broadcasting), and Güipil Press, to name a few. I was also interviewed by the oldest porn magazine in France.

PASTOR & THERAPIST

My husband and I have a marriage and family counseling ministry called Serving Alongside Ministry (SAM). Though we are based in Colorado, Eric and I reach out to couples and singles who are serving God all over the world. Our website can be found at ericracheldufour.com. I am currently working on my Doctor of Ministry in Counseling with Vision International University in Ramona, California.

TESTIMONIALS

"This book will completely transform your life, your health, your self-esteem, and your marriage relationship."

Shannon Ethridge, Author of the Best-seller Every Woman's Battle

"It is with all my heart that I recommend this book, which will be a source of restoration, consolation, and most importantly, of liberation! This book is filled with hope, encouragement, and love. I have no doubt you'll be changed after reading this."

Stéphanie Reader, Ph.D., Head of women's ministries at Nouvelle Vie de Longueuil Church

"The readers of this book will appreciate Rachel Dufour championing two vital concepts: Women have a unique and beautiful sexual voice, whether married or single; lovemaking in marriage, to be fun and meaningful, must be mutual with the wife embracing her feminine sexuality knowing that a turned-on wife is the greatest turnon to a husband. Both husbands and wives can greatly profit from reading this book as women learn to own and revel in their sexuality."

Dr. Doug Rosenau Author of A Celebration of Sex, Single & Sexually Whole; co-author: Total Intimacy
